Mr. Venkataramane Gowda.—The date of the grant of copies is generally ante-dated. To avoid this the initials of the Amildar are necessary.

Reply of Government.—Will be considered.

In regard to the first part of the subject, the further reference which the Chief Court promise to make after consulting all District Judges may be awaited.

As regards the second part the Chief Court's views may be accepted. As a matter of fact the date of disposal is not insisted upon in the Courts. It is required only in the Central Records and the Chief Court have now solved the difficulty by ordaining the opening of an index book. This communication will [illegible] be recorded, if approved.

To

C.S. BALASUNDARAM IYER, Esquire, B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

S i r,

Adverting to your letter No. J. 3817 dated the 18th March 1918 inviting the attention of this court to subject No. 74 of the Proceedings of the Representative Assembly of 1917 (Dasara Session) and the reply of the Government thereto in the matter of the grant of copies of documents in civil and criminal courts and calling for the opinion of this court in the matter, I am directed to state that as for issuing a direction to an officer of each court to affix his initials against the column "the date on which a copy is ready for delivery", the Judges have no objection except that it is likely to give a lot of extra work in some courts and are consulting District Judges on the point.

(1) Point for orders

With regard to the second part of the subject that applications for copies should be complied with when only the suit number is given without the corresponding disposal number and date of disposal, I am to state that it is only in applications applications presented to the Central Record Rooms or sent there for compliance that there is any need to note in the application the disposal number and date of disposal: in the Central Record Rooms records are arranged in the order of disposal, and the disposal number is necessary to facilitate the finding of the record required. But it is not always so easy for the party requiring a copy to find out the disposal number as it is to ascertain the serial number and year of the case, and to obviate the difficulty to which the parties may be put in finding out the disposal numbers of cases and the delay which may be occasioned thereby, the Chief Court have recently determined to open in the Central Record Room at Bangalore an index of disposals as an experimental measure, and if its maintenance is found to be sufficiently useful, to open similar indexes in other Central Record Rooms.

N.T.

(2) may be retained.

I am to add that after the introduction of the index in all the Central Record Rooms, the civil courts will be instructed not to insist on the disposal number and date of disposal being given in the copy applications.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

N. Gopalaswamy
